Trojan Guard Advances to ISSMA State Finals:

The Trojan Guard Marching Band competed with 16 other Northern Indiana bands in the Indiana State School Music Association's (ISSMA) Scholastic 'A' Class State Preliminary competition this past Saturday at Homestead High School in Ft. Wayne, IN.

This event marks the first level of statewide competition for the Scholastic 'A' and Scholastic 'B' Class bands, with two additional competitions taking place simultaneously at central and southern locations around Indiana. This year only 16 Scholastic 'A' bands from across the state have earned composite scores high enough to qualify for a Superior 'Gold' division rating and advancement to the state level of competition. These bands will compete at the ISSMA Scholastic Finals competition held at Lawrence Central High School in Indianapolis on Oct. 22. The champion bands from both the 'A' and 'B' classes will then perform in exhibition at the Open Class State Finals in Lucas Oil Stadium on Saturday, Oct. 29.
